WFCS welcomes prospective patrons

West Fallowfield Christian School recently announced that it has limited space available in all grades for the 2005-2006 school year.

Interested applicants are encouraged to contact the principal, Elvin Kennel, for further enrollment information regarding the kindergarten-grade 8 programs, according to a press release.

The school celebrates 64 years of Christian education offering a balanced curriculum in core subjects as well as electives. Interscholastic opportunities are available in fine arts and sports for middle school students. Students come from 60 different churches in Chester and Lancaster counties. Bus transportation is supplied for families residing in the Avon Grove, Coatesville, Octorara, Oxford, Pequea, Solanco and Unionville-Chadds Ford districts. Financial aid is available.

WFCS admits students of any race, national or ethnic origin to all the programs, rights, privileges and activities generally afforded to students. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, national or ethnic origin, or gender in the administration of educational policies, admission policies, scholarship programs, athletics or other school-administered programs.

The school is just south of Highland Road on Fallowfield Road in Atglen. For more information or to schedule an appointment, call the school office at 610-593-5011.
